

Barbara D. Linney
Member, Miller & Chevalier
General Counsel, WIFLE Foundation, Inc. and WIFLE, Inc.

Barbara Linney is a member in the Washington, D.C. office of the law firm of Miller & Chevalier, Chartered, practicing in the area of international trade and transactions. She regularly advises both U.S. and foreign clients regarding U.S. export controls and international economic sanctions, defense trade and security regulations, and other international trade and business issues, including foreign investments review, mergers, acquisitions and financings, and anticorruption and anti boycott compliance. She represents clients before various federal agencies, including the Departments of Commerce, Defense, State and the Treasury (Office of Foreign Assets Control and Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States). Ms. Linney, who holds a master's degree in international law from Georgetown University, is an active member and a past President of the Association of Women in International Trade, Inc. (WIIT-DC) and serves as pro bono general counsel to WIIT and WIFLE. In 2006, Ms. Linney was the recipient of WIIT's Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2007, she received the WIFLE Executive Committee award in recognition of her pro bono service.