Vice President, WIFLE Foundation, Inc. and Deputy Executive Director, WIFLE, Inc.

In April 2013, Sheree L. Mixell was selected as Vice President/Deputy Executive Director of the WIFLE Foundation, Inc. and WIFLE, Inc. respectfully. Ms. Mixell retired, January 31, 2013, after 25 years of distinguished law enforcement service, retiring as the ATF Special Agent in Charge of the Philadelphia Field Division. As the SAC, she directed ATF's law enforcement operations and industry regulation activities of special agents, industry operations investigators, task force officers, and administrative staff, throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Ms. Mixell also served on ATF's Director's Advisory Committee that advises the ATF Director on policy, management and operational issues impacting ATF offices around the country. In 2007, Ms. Mixell was selected to participate in ATF's Senior Executive Service (SES) program. Ms. Mixell has attended executive development programs at the University of Virginia, Treasury Executive Institute, Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) Executive Leadership Program, and the White House Offices of Cabinet Affairs and Presidential Personnel. Ms. Mixell has been a member of the federal Senior Executive Service (SES) since 2009 when she earned her OPM SES Certification. In December of 2011, Ms. Mixell was promoted to Special Agent in Charge, Philadelphia Field Division.

She began her career in law enforcement over 25 years ago with the United States Secret Service, in Washington, DC. In 1990, she became an agent with ATF. In 1997, she was promoted to ATF Headquarters as a Program Manager in the Office of Liaison and Public Information. She also served as the Group Supervisor for the Washington Field Division Intelligence Group and Regional Crime Gun Center. In this capacity, she coordinated ATF support to major events and investigations, which included the 2001 Presidential Inauguration, the International Monetary Fund (IMF)/World Bank events, the Pentagon investigation, and the Sniper investigation. She was then promoted to the Chief of the Office of Public Affairs at ATF's National Headquarters serving as the agency's national spokesperson. She also served as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of ATF's Baltimore Field Division where she provided oversight to personnel in Maryland and Delaware and successfully led a number of law enforcement initiatives, including the Violent Crime Impact Team, the High Intensity Drug Trafficking Initiative, and the Firearms Trafficking Initiative.

She has received numerous Department of Treasury and Department of Justice Special Act and Service Awards and was recently named a Woman of Distinction by the Philadelphia Business Journal. Ms. Mixell served as ATF's Federal Representative to WIFLE for approximately 15 years. She has served as the Vice President and President of the Women in Federal Law Enforcement (WIFLE) Executive Committee and is a founding and lifetime member of the organization. She is also a member of the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF), the Liaison Officers Association, and the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP). Ms. Mixell is a native of Muncie, Indiana. She is a graduate of Indiana University where she earned a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice.
