About the Presenter

Mr. Markham's career has included both military and civilian service. Mr. Markham served on active duty in the U.S. Air Force from 1969-1975. In 1974, he received a BBA in Business from St. Edwards University in Austin, Texas and an MS in Finance from the University of Houston in 1980. From 1976 to 1982 he was a loan officer and worked his way up to the level of vice president of the Bank of the Southwest. From 1982 to 1987 Mr. Markham was an executive vice president at Central Bank in Houston, Texas. Mr. Markham also served in the U.S. Air Force reserves from 1991 to 2007. During his time in the reserves, he worked as a special agent in the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI). He was assigned to and received extensive training with the counterintelligence group for much of his time at AFOSI. His expertise includes criminal investigations, fraud investigations, technology protection, counter-intelligence, and dignitary protection. During his time at AFOSI, he served in Turkmenistan, Afghanistan, Iraq, and Pakistan, among other locations. In 1996, Mr. Markham founded C.R. Markham and Associates, a private investigation firm that specializes in criminal and civil investigations, and manages this firm full-time today.
