

Elizabeth K. Newman is the Senior Associate of the law firm of Mahoney & Jeffrey, PLLC, “The Federal Employee’s Law Firm.”

Ms. Newman concentrates her practice in the areas of employment, labor, and discrimination law. She has successfully represented all categories of Federal employees, including managers, supervisors, and members of the Senior Executive Service in litigation and mediation of their employment matters at the U.S. Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB), the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC), and the Defense Office of Hearings and Appeals (DOHA). She has also represented Federal employees during the grievance/arbitration process. In addition, Ms. Newman provides advice and representation to Federal employees and contractors, during all phases of the security clearance process from initial application thru investigation and adjudication to appeal. Ms. Newman also represents Federal employees throughout all stages of their application for Federal disability retirement benefits.

Ms. Newman currently serves as the Deputy General Counsel for Council 260 and Local 2703 of the American Federation of Government Employees, AFL-CIO.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Newman worked as staff counsel at the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) where she advised the Board Members on matters involving unfair labor practices, collective bargaining, and union elections.

Ms. Newman earned her law degree (J.D.) from the Washington College of Law at American University. In law school, she worked as a student attorney in the law school's Women and the Law Clinic representing clients in child neglect cases. She received her undergraduate degree (B.A. English and History) from Washington and Jefferson College in 2000, graduating cum laude.

Ms. Newman developed her interest in employment law as a legal intern at the Department of Labor and at the NLRB. During law school, she wrote case summaries for the textbook "Compensatory Damages and Other Remedies in Federal Sector Employment Discrimination Cases."

Ms. Newman is admitted to practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and before the Bar of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.

Ms. Newman has served as a guest-lecturer in Fair Employment Law at The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, and as a speaker at the 2008 Congressional Youth Leadership Forum. She is honored to have been invited to speak again at WIFLE's Annual Leadership Training Conference after having spoken at WIFLE's 2008 Annual Leadership Training Conference.
