

RESUME

Beginning date of service at National Police Service Office (PNC for its abbreviation in Spanish) May/1986

Police Career:

- In charge of the Staff of the Department of Criminal Investigations.
- Kidnap Investigator at NPS Office.
- Secretary of the NPS's Human Resources Office.
- Chief of the Logistic Section of the ex 3rd. Station of PNC at Antigua Guatemala.
- Chief of the Logistic Section of the General - Sub department of Support NPS
- Chief and Founder of Victim's Assistant Division. Specially focused on Children Victims, Third Age Adults and Domestic Violence's Survivors.
- General Sub – Director of Preventive Crime Section.
  - As General Sub – Director of Preventive Crime Section she founded the Childhood and Adolescence Section in subject matter of PINA Law (for its initials in Spanish of Integral Protection of Childhood and Adolescence Law). The principal objective was to train all the Police Department to make Police Agents to know, to understand and to respect the Law mentioned.
  - She created the Section of "Childhood Protection" concerning to Illegal Adoptions. It has had good results. Through that Section Mrs. Blanco has stopped the process of Illegal Adoptions that take place in Guatemala. Her principal goal is to help snatched Children's Mothers to be treated as illegal merchandise.
- She has founded the Community Relationships Division and its delegations in a National Level. That Division is in charge of the Community Organization to perform "Community Preventive Plans" to benefit the population.
- She is the Guatemalan Police National Service Representative at the Central American and Caribbean Committee of Chiefs of Police.
- She founded the "Police Prevention Offices" at the Judge Courts.

COURSES

Qualified Police Management
Qualified in Assistance to Violence Victims
Qualified in Human Rights
Qualified in Gender Equity
Qualified and Expertise in Community's Organization
Qualified in Crime Prevention
Qualified in Intervention on Victims' Crisis
Several courses about Juvenile Gangs Topics
Qualified in Childhood and Adolescence Topics
Course of Juvenile Violence
Course of Social Unity (or Cohesion)
Course of Conflicts Intervention
Course of Police Ethics

September 2008

Mrs. Blanco was promoted to General Director of National Police Service.
General Captain of National Police Service (PNC for its Spanish Abbreviation)
Marlene Raquel Blanco Lapola.