

The Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), together with the Women in Federal Law Enforcement (WIFLE) and the National Center for Women and Policing (NCWP) invite you to a seminar "Empowering the victim: Developments in Human Trafficking" to be held at the Canadian Embassy.

The Seminar will be the 4th seminar organized on this topic and will bring together the international community along with US federal, state and local police officers as well as non-governmental agencies to discuss and listen to topics presented by experts in subject matters relating to human trafficking. The focus of this year's seminar will be on the human trafficking victim. Speakers will include representatives from the Canadian and US governments as well as specialists from the private sector.

Date: Thursday, May 1, 2008

Location: Canadian Embassy, 501 Pennsylvania, NW, Washington DC, 20001

Time: all day session (boxed lunch will be provided) (8:30 to 4:30) with a reception to follow

Agenda: the final agenda will be circulated on 15APR08.

RSVP: wifle@comcast.net

Please note there is limited parking around the Canadian Embassy.

Metro stations in the vicinity are Judiciary Square (Red Line) and Archives Navy Memorial Penn Quarter (Yellow and Green Line).

Should you have any questions regarding this event, please contact:

Taitu Deguefe, Liaison Officer, CBSA, Canadian Embassy, 202-448-6365,
taitu.deguefe@international.gc.ca
Margaret Moore, Director NCWP/Executive Director WIFLE, 703-548-9211, mmoore@feminist.org

Taitu Deguefé
Liaison Officer - Agent de liaison
Canada Border Services Agency -
Agence des services frontaliers du Canada
Canadian Embassy - Ambassade du Canada
501 Pennsylvania Ave. NW
Washington DC 20001
Tel: 202-448-6365 / Fax: 202-682-7689
taitu.deguefe@international.gc.ca