

IN MEMORIAM
First Female ATF Agent Killed in the Line of Duty

Special Agent Kimberly Place, of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives' Boston Field Division, tragically died on August 1, 2007, as the result of an on-duty automobile accident on I-91 in West Springfield, Massachusetts. Special Agent Place, a native of Gloucester, Massachusetts, was a 20-year veteran of ATF, and was assigned to the Springfield Gun Task Force.

Special Agent Place's family has requested that, in lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Kimberly's name to Cape Ann Animal Aid, 260 Main Street, Gloucester, MA 01930, Phone: 978-283-6055.

Expressions of condolence may be sent to the Kimberly Place Family, c/o Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Springfield Field Office, 1550 Main Street, Room 317, Springfield, MA 01103.
