LEADERSHIP TRAINING

WIFLE's Annual Leadership Training offers a diverse group of experienced speakers who present topics directly applicable to today's law enforcement environment. The annual training event attracts law enforcement professionals as well as those individuals who are in related professions, both domestically and abroad.

WIFLE AWARDS PROGRAM

Each year, the WIFLE Foundation formally solicits federal agencies to nominate individuals for awards in a variety of categories. WIFLE is the only organization that recognizes exceptional courage, outstanding accomplishments, and significant contributions that have advanced the recruitment, retention, and promotion of women in federal law enforcement. Additionally, WIFLE honors federal prosecutors for exceptional work including investigations resulting in the conviction of individuals involved in the trafficking of women or children for sexual exploitation, attempted or committed crimes of violence against women or any minority group, and other heinous criminal offenses. In 2014, WIFLE established the Elizebeth Smith Friedman Intelligence Award of Excellence.
